Strive for Supremacy With Domestics.

Mrs. Fishel's Pride Expected to Have Close Tilt With Invading Dogs.

When Mrs. Mark Fishel brought out the unheralded Pekingese Too-Le of Todding-ton, and won everything in sight with him at the toy spaniel show last week at the Walderf-Astoria, she started a ball a-rolling which at present shows no signs of stopping.

No sooner had Mrs. Fishel stepped from the ring bearing her prize Peke and her Peke's prizes than the cables began to hum. In short order more than $500 had been pent in sending messages to England for something to beat Mrs. Fishel's Celestial wonder, and one enthusiastic fancieress sent a cable which read: "Price no object. Get me something that will defeat everything here." And then followed a dozen names of well known champions which the newcomer would have to meet. This little epistle to the Britons cost the sender a trifle over $00.

This bullish attitude of Peke fanciers is pouring golden American dollars into the coffers of the English breeders and bringing joy to the heart of one Charles G. Hopton, apperintendent of the Pekingere show which will be held in the ballroom of the Plaza on Tuesday.

"C. G. H." is going to have a wonderful show and if any one doubts the authenticity of this report let him ask Mr. Hopton. To begin at the beginning, there are nearly 400 entries with 170 dogs. This is an increase of 170 entries and sixty actual dogs over last year's record. Among the dogs which have been entered and are now on the water are Daymont Want Woo, belongthe water are Daymont Wang Woo, belonging to Mrs. W. H. Day: Buddha, which is the property of Mrs. J. A. Burden, Jr.: Ah-Hi-To, owned by Mrs. A. M. Hunter, and Newata Chum of Egham. The last named little Chingman is going to be the sensation of the show. He was purchased by special cable from Mrs. Ashton Cross stanging said to be the largest away with the sensation of the show. at a price said to be the largest ever paid by an American fancier by cable. Nowata Chum's meeting with Too-Le of Toddingon will be of the greatest interest to every one who knows the two dogs and is familiar with their respective merits.

It will be a surprise to many to learn that Lady Samuelson is going to compete at this show. She has given Yuan-Shi-Kai of Braywick into the custody of Miss Elsie le Wolfe, who will show her ladyship's favorite for her.
